COMPASS COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION SUPPORTS TWO LOCAL NON-PROFITS

Eureka, CA – Compass Community Credit Union recently supported to two non-profits helping to better our local community. A donation was presented to the Humboldt Library Foundation for their book mobile and a donation was presented to the Eureka Community Services to provide scholarships for children's camp.

Alison Talbott and Elizabeth Murguia from the Humboldt Library Foundation and Jim Thomas and Catherine Cunningham, from Eureka Community Services accepted the checks presented by Bruce Lund, AVP of Marketing and Retail Banking from Compass Community Credit Union.

"Reading is so important to the people in our community, which is why we wanted to donate to the Humboldt Library Foundation." We are also thrilled to sponsor 11 students to participate in camp this fall," said Ray Litchfield, President and CEO of Compass.

The Humboldt Library Foundation was formed in 1996. It was established to build financial support for the Humboldt County Library system.

Eureka Community Services offers campership scholarships for day camps, specifically Camp Cooper and Camp Sequoia, to qualifying families. Funding is limited and awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.

Compass Community Credit Union serves members in Humboldt, Del Norte and Trinity counties. Membership is open to anyone who lives, works or worships in these three counties. For over 74 years, Compass Community Credit Union has been providing financial solutions to their members. For more information, visit Compassccu.org.
